Re: New York Marine & General Insurance Company v. American Empire Surplus Lines Insurance Company
Case No. : 1:21-cv-01112
Our File No. : 422-105473

Dear Judge Gorenstein:

This firm represents Defendant, American Empire Surplus Lines Insurance Company in connection with the above referenced matter.

We write, with Plaintiff's consent, to request an adjournment sine die of the Settlement Conference currently scheduled to take place before Your Honor on September 23, 2021 at 2:30 pm. This is the first request by the parties for such an extension.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Eileen de Callies".
Eileen de Callies

cc: William Stewart, Esq. (via ECF)

The parties' joint request to adjourn the settlement conference sine die is granted. The parties shall write to the Court as soon as they are prepared to participate in a settlement conference. The letter shall include proposed dates for the conference. This Order has no effect on any deadlines in this case.

So Ordered.
